Dear August

Thank you for your letter of January 31st in regard to [redacted]. I regret that when [redacted] was here I was unable to see him. However, [redacted] had a long talk with him and was very favorably impressed.

is under consideration for two or three jobs, and I am confident that we will find a slot which will be of interest to him and where he can be of service to us. You may be sure he is not forgotten, and that we will get in touch with him again in the very near future.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,
